

WANT BUSINESS MEN ON TICKET AS SUPERVISORS

Republicans Intend to Ask
Prominent Honoluluans to Get Into Race

Republican leaders, especially those who were closely associated with the recent local campaigns, will endeavor to induce prominent Honolulu businessmen to run for office in the coming county election.

Someone must get out and put up good men, the party leaders declare, and the G. O. P. intends to try and induce these businessmen to come forward as candidates and then exert every effort to have the party voters cast their ballots for them.

The businessmen in question are wanted by the party to run for the board of supervisors. Among the names mentioned in political circles today are those of A. Lewis, Jr., F. M. Hatch, W. W. Chamberlain, John R. Galt, Joseph Lewis, A. D. Castro, A. F. Judd, Henry Freitas, William Henry and M. Hula.

"These are the men that the politicians are after," a party leader told the Star-Bulletin. "We want to put up a ticket of businessmen. But things are up in the air now and the matters might simmer down to the few who may accept. Of course, the members of the present board of supervisors are considered as being candidates for reelection."

The Republicans, this party leader says, always have been accused of putting out a slate. If these businessmen will run they will be elected, he asserts, adding that, if they will not run, they cannot accuse the party of operating "machine politics."

"These are the kind of men we want in office," he concludes, "and they are men who should come out and work for good government."

It is reported in Republican circles that L. L. McCandless will not be a candidate for mayor. The candidates, it is said, will be J. J. Fern, Democrat, and J. C. Lane and J. C. Cohen, Republicans.

CONKLING TELLS CITY FINANCES FOR SIX MONTHS

The amount of registered warrants held against the city and county for operating expenses since July 1 is $175,000, according to City Treasurer D. L. Conkling. Part of this will be paid the end of this month and the rest in December. The portion of the $175,000 held against the general fund is approximately $130,000; permanent fund $33,000, and school fund $12,000.

The taxes to pay the expenses of the city are received May 15 and November 15 from the territory. Conkling has already received the money for the school fund which amounts to $40,550, and out of which he will have to pay $17,500 to the cash basis fund and $12,011.29 to cover the registered warrants.

Visitors should accept a strip of land to be used as a road across property owned by the Bernice Bishop Estate was again brought up and further time given for a decision.

The board Friday afternoon approved the action of Henry Freitas, building and school inspector, in discharging D. Kahikina and J. K. Kaleikini, janitors at the Liliuokalani school, because they did not attend to their duties.

Friday H. E. Wescott, purchasing agent, sent notices to all city and county departments requesting that they make out a list of all material and supplies and the amount and quality of each for the ensuing six months, beginning January 1, in order that they may be presented to the board for approval and bids obtained.

WOMAN SAID TO BE CENTENARIAN DIES ON MAUI

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, Maui, Nov. 17.—After living for more than a century, during which she saw the many changes of government and customs of the people in the Hawaiian Islands, Mrs. K. Kuliheua died in Hana the early part of this week. She was declared by members of her family to be 104 years old. Up to within three or four days of her death, when she went to bed with almost her first sickness, she fully retained her faculties and appeared to be in better physical condition than many younger women. She had six children, one of whom died a few years ago. The old lady survived her husband for twenty-five years, who was noted in his time in Hana for his great strength. The grandchildren and great grandchildren of the woman are so numerous that no one in Hana will proffer a guess as to their number. Mrs. Kuliheua was never outside of the Hana district in all her lifetime, so kamaainas in the district assert.

JAPANESE Y. M. C. A. NOT LARGE ENOUGH TO TAKE CARE OF ALL ACTIVITIES

Last evening the Japanese Y. M. C. A. was the scene of many activities.

At 7:15 o'clock 25 Boy Scouts of Troop VI met to adopt the new constitution. After each scout had affixed his signature to the same Scoutmaster Thomas read the oath and the troop repeated and pledged to obey the same. Plans for the November hike were considered.

In order to give the Student Alliance a place to hold its meeting the scouts were compelled to adjourn early in the evening without giving tests to several boys who were prepared. Further, the drill and play session were omitted. The latter events are very important features which hold the interest of the boys.

The Fair Hawaii Literary Society was compelled to close at an early hour in order to accommodate the Hundred Club in its observance of the week of prayer for the Y. M. C. A. It is claimed by workers that the efficiency of the work is greatly handicapped by the lack of adequate build-
